Accelerating Transformation
through Business

Entrepreneurs at Work

GlobalWorks partners with Canadians and encourages people like you to establish profitable businesses to strengthen the social fabric of communities.

A young couple from Western Canada left everything familiar and meaningful to start a business in the Middle East. Fifteen years ago, they founded a garment manufacturing business. Phase two of their entrepreneurial work resulted in them using leftover wasted fabric to produce a low cost hygiene product for women.

Similarly, another family, this time from Eastern Canada, decided to move to the Middle East – North Africa and contribute to the value chain by employing local women in the harvest of a “nut” to produce an organically certified oil product for export to world markets. This business creates jobs and opportunities for women who live in remote villages.

Economic Uplift

GlobalWorks partners with people from around the world to economically empower local business owners in sustainable, viable, scalable and market driven businesses.

Local business owners and entrepreneurs are trained in business practices that result in a higher level of productivity and income. Community transformation is seen as wealth shared through supporting the needs of the community.

We believe in lifting economies in Africa, Southeast Asia and Latin America through agricultural projects, the production of silk, a music studio and more!

BUSINESS FOR TRANSFORMATION

Visionary business leaders who go, invest, and establish a profitable business in another culture; creating jobs, bringing economic uplift and value to the community.

GlobalWorks invites people like you to strengthen the social fabric of the community, working together for kingdom impact.

SMALL BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

Business leaders who get involved in economic development, helping people create a business by providing financial impetus to get things started, or offering the training to become economically productive.

At GlobalWorks, we believe working with indigenous entrepreneurs to foster economic uplift means we say in a real, practical way, “You can do this!” As a businessperson you offer your experience and share what you believe is necessary for sustainable enterprise development.

GLOBAL CAREERS

Global career professionals earn income from their employer, creating a platform to engage in meaningful relationships with others.

GlobalWorks comes alongside professionals interested in working globally through cross-cultural opportunities. Connects cross-cultural workers and professionals who are interested in working and having an impact in another country.

MARKETPLACE MINISTRIES

Many business entrepreneurs and marketplace professionals seek ways to live out their faith in the workplace. They may network together to have a positive influence in the community.

GlobalWorks recognizes that effective influencers invest significant time and resources into the lives of others. We introduce business professionals to opportunities that extend the transformative work of Christ to the global marketplace.

More than 3/4 of the world’s population lives on less than $10 (avg) a day.

Nearly half of the world’s population has an annual income of less than $1000 a year. Oxfam estimates that it would take $60 billion annually to end extreme global poverty-- that’s less than 1/4 the income of the top 100 richest billionaires. (Sources: news.gallup.com; dosomething.org)

You can contribute to economic uplift and transformation through business.

Global unemployment rates are reported as high as 80% in countries where we believe God is calling us to serve.

Unemployment and the underemployment of well-educated people is a worldwide issue. Business and creating jobs does more to alleviate poverty than aid. (Sources: ilo.org, data.oecd.org)

You can use your skills and experience to partner with others globally.

91% of the people we want to share our resources and business experience with have no access to the good news message.

They live in areas where there are few, if any Christ-followers and no churches. (Source: globaldisciples.org)

You have what it takes to help inspire transformational impact through business.
